STAT

17. (Unclassified - THW) LIAISON Spoke with Michele Farrar, in the office of Representative Paul N. McClosky, Jr. (R., Calif.), regarding her request for the Congressman concerning if anything new had been developed on how CBU's had made their way to Africa. I said I would have to check and get back to her. I asked [REDACTED] CSS/NFAC, to check on the matter.

18. (Internal Use Only - MAO) LIAISON Jason Cooke, House International Relations Subcommittee on Inter-American Affairs staff, called regarding information on the Cuban involvement in the invasion of Zaire for Subcommittee Chairman Gus Yatron (D., Pa.). I told him a briefing is scheduled for the full committee on 8 June on this subject, which the Congressman could attend. He thanked me for this information.

✓19. (Unclassified - MAO) LIAISON Per her request, I sent to Maureen Kiley, in the office of Representative Robert McClory (R., Ill.), a copy of an atlas on the People's Republic of China.

✓20. (Unclassified - MAO) LIAISON Per his request, I sent to Frank C. Ballance, a staffer on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, an Agency publication entitled "International Terrorism: The Problem of Patron State Support."

21. (Unclassified - RLB) LEGISLATION Spoke with Tracey Cole, OMB, to find out whether she had sent to us as she promised last Friday a copy of the letter the Department of State had sent to Chairman Edward Bolan House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, on Title IV of the House intelligence authorization bill, H. R. 12240. Ms. Cole said she had sent a copy by courier but would get another copy to us right away. I also asked her if she had been able to set up a meeting to discuss our concerns with the State Department Authorization legislation; she said she was still trying and would get back to us as soon as she had something.
